On behalf of the European Society for Comparative Endocrinology (ESCE) and the Local Organizing Committee, we are pleased to invite scientists working in the field of comparative endocrinology to participate in 25th CECE. The Conference will be held in the Central Building, Medical School, University of Pécs, Hungary.

The object of the ESCE is to promote interdisciplinary knowledge in the fields of Biology and Medicine concerned with the morphological and functional aspects of Comparative Endocrinology.

Pécs, the host city of the conference is the fifth largest city of Hungary with a cozy Mediterranean atmosphere and a lively environment. With its over 2000-year history, Pécs is a city of rich cultural heritage, innovations, and has a long tradition of conducting science.
